I have a lot of NOS parts for tractors and equipment that came out of three John Deere dealerships that closed around here that I would like to part with. I also have 65+- John Deere tractors some of which could be bought. Probably no super bargains, but I'll try to be reasonable. Any one interested please give me a call at 207-474-6664.

connected at the Gathering of the Green last summer. A reminder: the Model M series will be featured, the 65th anniversary in 2012.

Terry: RNJ sends many parts across the country, will send handout cards in each billing. Expo V may need some more wiggle room than available in the Expo account, possibly borrowing from other accounts as necessary.

Jeryl: The Expo committee will need more help from other members.

Terry/Jack: Reminder of NETCC's non-profit status and the need to expand the mission of education to the public of John Deere tractors and companion equipment's contribution to history.

Ralph: Noted the Vaughan family was featured in the "Generations to Come" John Deere calendar for 2011.

Gary moved, Jack seconded to purchase a "70" pedal tractor for the 2011 Scholarship raffle. Passed. Gary moved, Jack seconded to purchase a limited edition of the "7020 4WD" pedal for the 2012 raffle. Passed. Both purchased from RNJ, picked up "70" today, the "7020" to be delivered in about 2 months., paid from the Scholarship account.

The question was raised re: the potential Two-Cylinder World Wide lawsuit. One member responded, "There has been no account of it in the last 2 issues. Their new lawyer questions the cost of litigation and the likely repercussions that might happen to both TCWW and Deere so apparently the issue is in limbo".

Next Expo committee meeting at Hanover Fire Department on April 10, at 9:00.

Plow day at North Haverhill, 5/1; Meredith, 5/7.

Ira noted: The Charlotte, VT Parade for Antique Tractors (10/10/10) last year will be in September, in 2011. He will update. They had around 200 last year, both Ira and Marvin participated.

Meeting adjourned at 1:56pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Duffy McDanolds, substitute secretary
